

Parkhouse Bell named as preferred recruitment provider for Collab Group May 2017

Parkhouse Bell is delighted to have established a partnership with Collab Group to provide executive and senior management recruitment services.

Collab Group is a forward-thinking membership organisation that represents 36 of the UK's leading colleges and college groups. They are playing a leading role in ensuring that employers, government and education partners can collaborate effectively to provide transformative leadership in the education sector.

Parkhouse Bell CEO, Matt Wells, commented, "We are excited to be working in partnership with Collab Group, who are delivering real thought-leadership and supporting the creation and delivery of enhanced technical and professional skills programmes.

"I am confident that our knowledge of their sector and understanding of its recruitment challenges will enable us to offer high quality, ongoing consultancy and support."

The partnership will see Parkhouse Bell offering recruitment services to Collab Group Colleges at a senior and executive level, as well as regularly consulting with them and offering support to Collab Group and its members.

Collab Group CEO, Ian Pretty, commented on the new partnerships saying, "We are delighted to be working with Parkhouse Bell, an organisation with an outstanding reputation in the education and skills sector. We are confident that our partnership will be a great success."
