

Parkhouse Bell, the rapidly growing international recruitment business specialising in staffing services for the Employment Services, Education and Health sectors, has appointed Xavier Crimmins as their new Strategic Advisor.

Mr Crimmins has over 20 years' experience in the Community Services sector. As the Group CEO with Campbell Page, he was responsible for their impressive growth from a small rural provider to an international provider delivering services across Australia and the UK. During his tenure Campbell Page opened over 90 new offices and saw their customer numbers grow from 2,000 to 80,000 per year over a ten-year period.

Xavier is the former Chair of the National Employment Services Association, and is a former Director of Jobs Australia.

According to Matt Wells, CEO of Parkhouse Bell, Xavier's appointment is a natural progression for the firm: "As a rapidly growing company, we are always striving to find new ways to add value to our clients and candidates. Xavier's background will provide an excellent perspective on our strategic growth plans and I am sure his skills and knowledge will prove to be invaluable as we take the business forward in the next phase of its development."

Commenting on his appointment, Xavier said "I am very excited to work with the Parkhouse Bell team. Having been a client of theirs in my previous roles for many years, I always found Parkhouse Bell able to deliver on their promises and find outstanding candidates. It is vital for any recruitment business to understand the current and future needs of the industries they support and I look forward to engaging with industry leaders to ensure these needs are met, and that we continue to attract the very best people to their organisations."
