

Parkhouse Bell appoints new Performance and Training Manager

19th May, 2016

Parkhouse Bell is delighted to announce the appointment of Rebecca Anderson as their new Performance and Training Manager.

Rebecca has over 7 years recruitment experience, most recently managing a branch recruitment practice for Capita Education. Rebecca holds Chartered Institute of Personnel and Development (CIPD) qualifications and has managed both permanent and temporary staffing teams, largely in the UK education sector.

Commenting on the appointment, Parkhouse Bell CEO Matt Wells said “We are very excited to have Rebecca joining the team, during what is a time of unprecedented growth for Parkhouse Bell. Her appointment is a further investment in the business to help ensure our teams develop into the best they can be, whilst continuing to provide consistent, outstanding customer service to our clients and candidates”

Rebecca said “I am really pleased to have joined Parkhouse Bell at such an exciting time, their ethos and values as a company is what attracted me to the role. I have been warmly welcomed into such a fantastic team, full of hard-working people who are truly committed to task in hand and I am really looking forward to getting stuck in and adding to the continued success.”
