

PRESS RELEASEParkhouse Bell appoint sector-expert Mary Cripps-Warwick*23rd June 2017

Parkhouse Bell is delighted to announce the appointment of the well-respected, employment services sector expert Mary Cripps-Warwick as a Consultant, supporting our Executive Search division.

Parkhouse Bell is rapidly becoming regarded as the specialist recruitment partner of choice for organisations working in the employment services, education and learning sectors. Recently appointed as a recruitment partner by the Association of Employment and Learning Providers (AELP) and the prestigious Collab Group, Parkhouse Bell is working closely with organisations delivering the Apprenticeship Levy.

Parkhouse Bell is also retaining a clear focus on working with employment services providers, providing consultancy and recruitment services to organisations preparing for the introduction of the new Work and Health Programme.

Mary's appointment will ensure that further strategic expertise and insight can be accessed by Parkhouse Bell's clients across these specialist sectors. Furthermore, as an accomplished and renowned business leader, Mary's blend of operational, financial and leadership skills will support Parkhouse Bell in the next phase of its development, further enhancing its service offer.

Mary commented, "I am delighted to be joining the team at Parkhouse Bell. I look forward to using my extensive business experience to support organisations looking to recruit top class employees and individuals looking for their next career move."

Commenting on the appointment, Parkhouse Bell CEO, Matt Wells said, "Mary is known and respected for her expertise across the employment services sector. Her business acumen and expertise in building, leading and developing successful teams at a senior level will be invaluable to Parkhouse Bell and our clients. I am delighted to welcome Mary to the team."
